

SKYLAR
TEMPLE
SINGER X ISHA

Learn to trust your intuition and discover your inner healer through the modality of sound.

In this two day certification, you will discover the science & ancient lineage of sound healing, learn how to play the crystal bowls, gong, chimes, tibetan bowls, & more instruments, create sacred healing spaces, understand your sound story, create vocal tones, & develop your intuition.

If you are desiring to explore your relationship with sound, develop your intuition, learn how to create deep meditative space for yourself and others, and possibly begin to offer this practice to others, then this journey is for you! This is also for you if you are a practitioner looking to add sound to your healing toolbelt.
